

THE BROWNLEE FOUNDATION

The Brownlee Foundation, set up by triathletes Alistair and Jonny Brownlee after their successes at the 2012 Olympics, was founded to inspire children from all backgrounds to enjoy sport, encourage them to lead active lifestyles and benefit from the opportunities sport provides. The Brownlee Foundation delivers triathlon events and weekly sessions for primary school children.

Distance from University of Leeds – 3 miles

Public transport route available – Yes

Parking available - Yes

Sessions Available

Day	Time	Activity	Location
Wednesday (Term Time)	5.30pm-6.30pm	Primary school session	The Brownlee Centre

Duties and Responsibilities

Follow the guidance from the coach, support where necessary, interact with the children, get involved in the session. Follow safeguarding and health and safety guidance. Supporting the coaching at weekly session. Volunteering at one of our events - registering schools, marshalling, fitting helmets, handing out medals etc.

Training and Support

Volunteers will work alongside a qualified coach, receive support from the staff at The Brownlee Foundation and safeguarding training could be offered

Commitment

Weekly or ad-hoc sessions

Further Information

This volunteer role does require a DBS Check

How to Apply and Next Steps

Applications are now OPEN and will remain open throughout the 23-24 academic year. To apply complete the application on the Leeds Sport webpage and select The Brownlee Foundation from the drop-down box under Which role are you applying for. The Diagram below gives an overview of the application process.

